General info on the exams

- General info
  - Exams are oral, about 30 minutes (+ grading)
  - Potentially questions on all lecture parts

- 59 students participated in the poll — thank you!
  - Fine with in-person. 42 (71.2%)
  - Prefer not in-person. 17 (28.8%)

- Both in-person and online exams
  - There will be separated days for oral exams and for online exams. (see below)
  - We will take care that neither variant is easier/harder than the other.

- Important
  - Please stay with your choice from the poll, as we reserved time accordingly!
    Unless there are good reasons against, of course.
  - Online exams. You need to ensure to have a stable internet connection and your device must have microphone, speaker, and camera. (details later)

- Other dates?
  - If no block fits for you, individual dates can be set up later upon request!
  - The same holds if an online exam needs to be stopped for technical reasons.

Exams – How to apply

- When to apply for exam dates?
  - Start. Tuesday, June 23, 2020, 12:00 (German time)
  - End. Friday, July 3, 2020, 12:00 (German time)

- How to apply for an exam date *block?
  - Write a mail to Gabriele Parisi, gabriele.parisi@upb.de (English or German).
  - Subject. "[computational-argumentation] Exam application"
  - Content. (a) Your name and matriculation number; (b) 3–4 block preferences, either only online or only in-person.
    Giving fewer preferences does not increase chances to get one of them!
  - Example. On the right, you see how the main content of your eMail could look like.

- How are exam dates assigned?
  - Exam dates will be assigned first come first serve.
  - Exact time slots within the blocks will be chosen by us.

Name: Milad Alshomary
